IMPLICATIONS FOR CHRISTIANS

If Israel succeeds in replacing the USA as the world's superpower, it will be a spectacular success. This is especially so if it is able to replace the USA as the world's superpower.

It seems likely that Christian blindness of that true Israeli goal would persist until the true Messiah, the son of David, appears.

Christians should now carefully consider the fact that Muslims share with them common beliefs such as:

- Jesus was born of a virgin mother;
- he was the true Messiah;
- he performed many miracles;
- the Israelites were denounced for their wickedness;
- they conspired to crucify him;
- Allah Most High raised him unto Himself;
- Jesus will one day return to rule the world with justice (from Jerusalem);
- his return will result in the triumph of truth over falsehood and justice over injustice in the world;
- his return will bring an end to history; and most Muslims as well as Christians believe that his triumph will be the final one.

It remains now for Christians to come to Islam where they will find a Jesus who is not God, nor son of God, but a prophet of Allah.

IRAN COULD WITHDRAW FROM NPT AND BEGIN THE QUEST FOR A NUCLEAR DETERRENT

Whether or not nuclear weapons are used in an Israeli attack on Iran, the fact remains that such an attack would be a major disaster.

“And build the maximum power that you can possibly build (to be used) against them, and this includes the power of the sword.”
(Qur'an, al-Anfal, 8:60)

“(And be warned that) the disbelievers are allies one of another: unless ye do this (i.e., build power and arm yourselves), they will fight you and kill you.”
(Qur'an, al-Anfal, 8:73)

Indeed Mohammed-Nabi Rudaki, deputy chairman of the Iranian parliament's National Security and Foreign Affairs Committee, has said:

The Iranians would also be following in the example of Pakistan whose then leader, Zulfikar 'Ali Bhutto,
